A building, which quartered an unidentified number of Soviet officers and den, was located about 20) meters from the town hall on the street leading south-southwest from the market square to the cometery. The building which was known as butusow House had be n turned into a sort of museum by the boviets and contained reproductions of the battle of Bunzlau; it was open to the public. 25X1 25X1 6. The Polish UB (Security Police) office was located in the torm hall on the market square. The MO (Militia) office was quartered in a corner building on the street leading from the town center to alt Jaeschwitz, about 100 meters north of the former Schuetzenhaus (Riflemen's Association clubhouse). 7. From mid-19h9 to August 1750, Polish infantry troops of about battalion strangth were in the barracks installation on the east side of the road to Alt Jaeschwitz. The soldiers were red bands on their caps. In heptember 1949, troops returned from field maneuvers with horse-drawn supply volucles and about 10 trucks of soldiers. 8. Prior to August 1950, another Polish unit of soldiers with red bands on their caps was stationed in the barracks installation on the west side of the road to Alt Jaeschwitz. It was estimated at about one battalion. No motor 25X1 vehicles were seen. 25X1 About June 1951, a Polish notorized unit [ was in the barracks installation on the west side of Al. Mojekowa which stavioned in Bunzlau. In the summer of 1950, a unit said to have been transferred to Bunzlau from Sagan.
